TERRY SENTENCED.

ing a Negro in Washington.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

WASHINGTON, June 9 .- Charles B. Terry, formerly of Mount Vernon, Ind., the policeman who shot a young negro named Washington, last November, was to-day sentenced to three years' hard labor in the penitentiary. When Judge McComas asked Terry if he had anything to say why the sentence of the law should not be pronounced the miserable man vainly attempted to say something, but was unable to control his emotions. Handing the judge a written statement he threw himself down in a chair, and, covering his face in his hands, wept like a child. After reading Terry's statement Judge McComas told Terry that he had carefully considered everything in connection with the circumstances of the case, and felt that the sentence should not be less than three years in the penitentiary, which sentence he im-Judge McComas was even more merciful than Terry had anticipated, for he decided that the sentence should be from the day of imposing, instead of commend ing, as is usual, upon the day of the convict's arrival at the penitentiary. An appeal was noted by Terry's counsel to the Court of Appeals, and as that court cannot dispose of the case much earlier than October next, Terry will remain in jail here until then. Should the Court of Appeals sustain the conviction, as it is generally anticipated it will do, Terry would then have about two years to serve in the penitentiary, the time spent in jail pending the appeal and the good-time reduction reducing the three-year sentence to about that length of time.

15,000 HOMELESS.

Effects of the Flood in the Fraser River District.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 9 .- The Dominion government is having a careful estimate made of the loss and losers by the floods. In the municipalities corresponding to American counties it is found by the census, taken carefully as possible, that fully 15,009 people are to-day homeless in consequence of the flooding of the Fraser. What their losses will be, or have been, cannot yet be calculated. The enormous total of homeless is made up thus: Delta, municipality, 2,000; Lang, 1,500; Matsqui, 1,000; Sumas, 500; Chilliwack, 3,000; Richmond 1,500; Burnaby, 8,000; Couquitlam, 200; Maple Ridge, 500; Mission, 5,000; Dewdney, 500; Nicomen, 300; between Nicomen and Yale, 200; Yale, 300.

Colonel Baker, provincial secretary, has been personally directing the personally directing the reli work for the local government. Unremitting attention or the part of the govern-ment is being required by the unfortunate settlers, many of whom are dependent up-on the calling of relief steamers for what Anti-Breckinridge Women Warned by an Anonymous Letter Writer.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 9.-It was learned to-day that six prominent women of this city who took a leading part in the anti-Breckinridge protest at the opera house several weeks ago have been warned through a letter mailed from Pittsburg that there are "skeletons" in their closets. and they could not afford to take part in such a "detestable proceeding against Col. Breckinridge." The letter was sent to Mrs. Judge Milton Durham, the address being Mrs. Durham, Mrs. Judge Jere R. Morton, Mrs. A. M. Harrison and three others whose names cannot be learned The letter was sent from Lexington to the Pittsburg postmaster, with the request that he remail it to Lexington, as addressed The postmaster wrote across the top of the letter in red ink, "Sent from Lexington, with the request to be mailed here."

The women refuse to allow the letter to be published. One of them said to-day: "Well, we know the handwriting, but we can't blame him for doing all in his power for Colonel Breckinridge, though it be done in ever so mean a manner. The letter will have no effect. We know our husbands pretty well, and such threats are beneath Negotiations Broken Off at Altoona, Pa. -Operators Fail to Appear at Latrobe and Mercer.

COLUMBUS, O., June 9 .- The conference of operators and miners was held in Lyndon Hall. The meeting was called to order by H. L. Chapman, an operator of the Jackson, O., district, residing at Columbus. J. B. Serbe, of Cleveland, an operator, was made chairman, and William Warner, a miner, secretary, with Frank S. Brooks, of the operators, an assistant. The meeting then appointed as a committee on scale of wages the following operators: F. L. Robbins and Wm. Taylor, Pennsylvania; A. L. Sweet and E. T. Bent, northern Illinois; W. S. Bogel and J. S. Tally, Indiana. On the part of the miners the scale committee was composed of John McBride, Ohio; P. H. Penna, Indiana; Joshua Dinkerly, Pennsylvania; J. M. Murray, Illinois; Cameron Miller, Ohio; A. A. Adams, Ohio, and John H. Kearns, Indiana. The meeting was small because of its being composed of representatives. Mr. Chapman said he called it at the suggestion of the miners'

The operators present represented over two-thirds of the bituminous coalfields in the United States. More than half of the miners were represented. Western Pennsylvania, Ohlo, Indiana and northern and eastern Illinois is the territory represented by operators. The representatives of the Ohio operators were: H. L. Chapman, Jackson district; J. S. Morton, W. S. Courtland, C. Marvin, Hocking district; J. B. Serbe, A. G. Blair and W. L. Woodford, eastern Ohlo. Western Pennsylvania was represented by M. H. Taylor, F. L. Robbins and John Blyth; northern Illinois by W. H. Holcomb, A. L. Sweet, Harry Taylor, E. T. Burt, S. M. Dalsell; Indiana by W. S. Bogle, J. K. Siebert, A. M. Ogle, Joseph Martin, David Ingle, W. Kenner and J. S. Tally. The representatives of the miners were all on the scale committee.

R. H. Johnson asked, at the opening, if this was a meeting of the committees of the various districts. Mr. Chapman replied that it was, but he was anxious to have all persons present who were interested in the coal business and that the general public should know all that was said. The rules of the Cleveland convention were adopted for the use of this convention. Mr. Morris, of Cleveland, understanding the meeting was suggested by miners, asked to hear from them. John McBride said the usual plan was to appoint a scale committee, but, before doing so, the miners desired to hear from the Pennsylvania operators as to what interests were represented and as to what influence any split among them might have. M. H. Taylor said be accepted the invitation to come here with the understanding that the miners had receded from the post-tion they held at Cleveland. Sixty-three operators favored settlement Fifty-three were opposed. Out of this number fourteen represented miners in the Big Vein district, who would not pay the same price as other operators. It was not fair that they should. However, if a fair agreement was reached thirty-four of the opposing mines would join the sixty-three in accepting the scale. The miners would stand by any reasonable agreement made at this meeting. The scale committee as above noted was then appointed. The meeting then adjourned until 4 p. m. the scale committee time to w operators time to confer with each other. An Indiana man said his State would stand by any reasonable proposition. There is a feeling that an adjustment will be reached. It is known that men on both sides are willing to agree on 69 cents per ton for the Pittsburg district, 60 cents for the Hocking valley, and other districts in proportion. The miners, however, will try with an advance of 5 cents for winter. p. m., as was expected, and, after waiting until 6 o'clock, the meeting adjourned to 8 have that scale adopted for summer The scale committee did not report at 4 p. m. The scale committee again asked for further time and the meeting adjourned to 10:30. At midnight the committee adjourned to Monday morning at 9 o'clock, A settlement now seems probable. The committee has practically agreed upon a basis of 60 cents for Ohio and 69 cents for western Pennsylvania. The Indiana miners and operators refuse to agree to a settlement unless the Grape creek miners-and operators in eastern Illinois are brought into it

NO CONFERENCE AT ALTOONA. Miners Angered at the Importation of Nonunion Labor.

ALTOONA, Pa., June 9.-The conference of miners and operators in the central Pennsylvania region to-day did not take place. While negotiations for a conference were in progress the miners received word that Berwynd, White & Co. had just landed two hundred new men at their mines at Horatio. This brought negotiations to an end. The conference was declared of and the miners and operators left for their

The operators expressed a willingness to confer with the miners as individuals, but not as an organization. District President Bradley told the operators that the result of the conference would have to be referred to National President McBride The operators said this was not the understanding and exhibited telegrams from McBride and Bradley assuring the operators that th miners in this district were authorized to act for themselves. Harry Berwynd, speaking for the operators, said they came to meet their miners, who were not here. The operators would not consent to be gov-erned by what was done in other districts, or by what might be determined by President McBride. They were willing, however, to do anything that was reasonable to end the strike. The miners held a separate meeting, and while it was in progress news of the importation of new men reached them, and the conference was declared off.

SOUTHERN ILLINOIS. Operators Submit an Ultimatum and the Miners Reject It. ST. LOUIS, June 9.- The conference of miners and operators of southern Illinois to discuss the local situation in the coal troubles met to-day, with fair representations of both sides in attendance. The Consolidated Coal Company, controlling the large proportion of the mines of the dis-

dent J. A. Crawford and National Secretary Patrick McBride, of the miners, were present when the meeting opened. The former took the chair and stated the object of the conference to be an effort to adjust the differences of employes and employers in the coal districts in central and southern Illinois. In response Frank W. Tracy, of Springfield, said in behalf of the operators that there would have to be something done to work upon. The men had quit work without making a single demand or complaint, leaving no basis for a conference. After a brief discussion it was decided that the miners' delegates, of whom there were forty-eight, representing 13,475 miners, should hold a caucus and prepare a proposition regarding wages, etc., upon which basis something could at least be attempted. base their claim on the fact that about the time of the signing of the Declaration of Independence Capt. Robert Vance agreed to organize and equip a military company and pay the men for their services. In return for this the government agreed to repay all the money spent by Vance, with interest. This was never done. Senator M. S. Quay, of Beaver county, is looking after the interests of the heirs, and will present the claim to Congress.

At the afternoon session of the conference the miners submitted a schedule of wages to the operators, who refused to accept it, as it would prevent the marketing of their coal. The following ultimatum was adopted by the operators, but the miners declined the terms offered and the conference adjourned without reaching any soluence adjourned without reaching any solution of the problem. "That we present as an ultimatum to the miners that they immediately resume work at the same prices as were being paid at the time they went on a sympathetic strike and that we shall be privileged to employ such men as suits us, no question of union or nonunion being raised, preference being given to our old men at each mine, the exgiven to our old men at each mine, the exceptions to the above being, that the Du-quoin district shall have the privilege of settling with their miners at such prices as can be agreed; that the Grape creek, Danville and Glenview districts shall pay, in summer, 35 cents per ton, mine run, 50 cents per ton screened; and in winter, 38 cents per ton, mine run, 55 cents per ton screened; also, that the Peoria district be authorized to settle as to prices with their miners." President Ridgely Talks.

ST. LOUIS, June 9. - President Charles Ridgely, of the Consolidated Coal Company, when asked this morning whether he would give his reasons for failing to attend the East St. Louis conference of coal operators and miners, said: "I have nothing to say. However, you may state for me that there are 529 mines in the district cov-ered by this meeting, and when one sees how many of them are reported as represented at the meeting he may place the re-sponsibility for failure on the people that do not attend, if there be a failure. The Consolidated company is not more willing to assume a disagreeable responsibility than anyone else. I know many things are laid at our doors. It will all come out after the strike is over. We are right. We have a splendid case and the public will see it. The Consolidated Coal Company must attend to its own business regardless of what may be Accomplished Nothing.

CENTRAL CITY, Ky., June 9.-The miners' meeting here broke up at 5 p. m. without accomplishing anything. Only three operators attended the meeting and they refused to take any part. The reason of the nonattendance of the operators is said to be the fact that the operators held a meeting here last week to which the strik-ers were invited, but refused to attend. The strikers were evidently ripe for settlement to-day and made efforts to get operators to the meeting this afternoon. They are not so jubilant to-night, while the operators say nothing, but seem more confident of ultimate success.

Fizzle at Latrobe.

LATROBE, Pa., June 9.-The proposed conference of operators and miners of this district was a fizzle, the operators not putting in an appearance. Committees from the various mines were on hand all day, but only one operator, M. A. Preston, came, and he remained but a very short time. Several of the largest mine owners were seen, and they said they would not go into any conference. The Ligonier, Whitney and Derry works are running full, and it is thought the strike here is practically at an Widened the Breach. ASHLAND, Ky., June 9 .- The miners and operators' meeting of the northeastern district of Kentucky held to-day at Denton accomplished nothing save to widen the breach, the strikers being highly indignant at being so openly snubbed. But two companies sent representatives, and these came only to see what was done, not being instructed to make any offers.

Iowa Strike Settled. OSKALOOSA, Ia., June 9. - The Iowa

MISMANAGEMENT CHARGED.

Receiver Asked for the American Investment Company.

DUBUQUE, Ia., June 9.-A bill was filed in the United States Court to-day in which Eastern stockholders ask that a receiver be appointed for the American Investment Company, of Emmetsburg, Ia. Subsequently, John Stewart & Co., of Manchester, England, who hold over $1,000,000 of the defendant's obligations, filed a bill in intervention, asking for a joint receivership. Judge Shiras issued an order, returnable June 19, to defendant to show cause why the receivership should not be granted. The complainant's bill charges the American Investment Company with insolvency and its officers with mismanagement. A. L. Ormsby, of Emmetsburg, is president. The authorized capital is $1,000,000, of which $800,-000 is paid up. The company has lent be-tween $7,000,000 and $8,000,000 on farms in South Dakota, western Kansas and Ne-braska, Wyoming, Colorado, Washington, Oregon and Texas, It has outstanding about $3,000,000 of guaranteed loans and $2. 000,000 of debenture bonds, and of these $5, 000,000 of mortgages 40 per cent, has been defaulted and defendant company, it is alleged, is unable to make its guarantee good.

RECEIVER APPOINTED.

The Switchmen's Aid Society in Financial Trouble.

CHICAGO, June 9 .- J. C. Wilson has been appointed receiver for the Switchmen's Aid Society by Judge Tuthill upon application of George Rutter, a creditor of the association. Mr. Rutter holds an un-satisfied judgment for $1.050 against the association. The receiver's bond was fixed Simsrott in a Chicago Hospital. CHICAGO, June 9 .- The Inter Ocean says: William A. Simsrott is now at the Washington Home, corner Madison street and Ogden avenue, under the name of William A Decker. His case is registered as one of "mental lapses," and his condition was such last night that he could not be seen. The officials at the hospital said last night that no one by the name of Simsrott was entered there. They did not deny, however, that the man registered under the name of Decker agreed with the description of the missing treasurer.

Wealthy Coupled Married.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 9.-Miss Hope Goddard, daughter of Col. William Goddard, of this city, and heir to $20,000,000, was married to C. Oliver Iselin, son of the late millionaire banker, Adrian Iselin, of New York, to-day. Owing to the recent death of an uncle of the bride's the ceremony was a quiet one, though nearly three hundred guests were present.

J. Byron Hume, of No. 1104 North Delaware street, presented a sorry appearance when he limped from the ladies' coach and grasped the hand of Major Hitt, The brave fellow made an attempt to smile, but failed dismally. His injuries are painful but not serious. J. M. Barnett escaped with a scalded hand and few slight bruises, that made him wince with pain as he walked. He avoided the crowd about the station, and took a carriage for his home, at the corner of Alabama and New York streets. On the advice of Dr. Rice, chief surgeon of the road, the Ohio men were not disturbed at this point, but were taken on to their homes. Dr. Rice joined the train at the scene of the wreck vesterday morning, and accompanied the njured men as far as Greencastle. Conductor John Trindle, who was in charge of the wrecked train, came in on No. 2 and was met by his son. He wore a bandage about his right hand, which, he sald, was the only injury he received. Conductor Trindle lives at No. 288 Union street. One of the severest sufferers of the wreck was Mrs. W. P. Bachelor, of Ruckle street, this city. She was on the train en route to visit relatives in Illinois. While her juries were not of a serious nature, she suffered a distressing relapse of heart trouble, with which she has long been afflicted. and for a time yesterday her condition was thought to be dangerous. She was brought home last night by her husband, who is on Major Hitt's postal staff. When the train drew in a young lady, wearing a bandage about her head, hurried from the cars and made a hasty inquiry as to the J., M. & I. trains. She eluded interviewers and took passage on the J., M. & I. for the south. Her name could not be learned, but it was understood that she was on her way to her home in scuthern Indiana from Indian Territory. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. physical welfare of the soldiers at camp McKee has received admirable attention-General McKee was confronted late this afternoon with the fact that the chaplains had been forgotten in the hurry to get to the front. One man suggested that if the soldiers attend the village churches the preachers may be boycotted after the troops are gone, but, nevertheless, there will be many blue coats in the pews.

The situation has been quieter to-day than it has been since the troubles began. The report that a farmer had received into his house a miner, probably wounded by Surgeon Stunkard, proves upon investigation by General McKee to be wholly without

The toughs of the village still maintain their treacherous actions towards the militia. They are careful to be respectful when the soldiers are in a body, but if one lone blue coat is caught in a crowd he is reviled in filthy language. The better class of miners hold aloof from the rowdies. The squad of light artillery under Lieut, Garrard came up from Cannelburg this afternoon and was received with cheers, This squad will remain here. Eighteen men, under Captain Curtis, returned this evening to Indianapolis. Lieut. Dan Thompson will come here to relieve Captain Curtis. The disturbances at Cannelburg are reported by Major Rockwood to be ended. The miners asked him last night if they could meet, and he told them that the militia could not interfere with the rights of American citizens. The miners expected to receive advices from their superior officers, but as none came they ad-Riley, H. W. B. Rousten and H. Albaugh. Scouting parties were kept on the go throughout the county to-day, Company A, of Indianapolis, marching all the way to Sullivan. No arrests were made in this vicinity. General McKee has received no information from the Governor as to the withdrawal of troops, and it is believed that they will be held here until the latter part of next week. Several coal trains ran the gauntlet this afternoon, one of them carry.

> ing a guard of soldiers. Surgeon-general Stone has been giving careful attention to the diet in camp, varying it as much as possible, and in consequence there are few of the disorders usually found in camp. There have been wild rumors that wells in the vicinity have been poisoned by miners, and, while there is little reason to believe the rumors, the soldiers are confining themselves to a few > wells near the guard lines. A half dozen pistol shots were fired beyond the outpost early this morning and again late to-night, but the shooters were probably after chicken thieves, and not soldiers. There is one woman in town who has urged the miners to attack the soldiers, and she has taunted the miners with being cowards. Although her actions are annoying, little heed is given to her mouthings. To-night strong guards and outposts will be put out.

> It was reported here to-day that over one hundred miners had gathered at Star City, intending to return to work Monday, and that all were armed. It was intimated to General McKee that trouble might ensue, This evening, however, two prominent leaders came over from Star City, and they claim that the miners are not going to work Monday. They say that the Anderson soldiers of McKee's command went in bathing in a reservoir there in the afternoon, but were not molested in the least. They deny reports of a gathering. Star City is in Clay county, just beyond the Sul-Myan county line.

> Sheriff Mills was before the grand jury at Sullivan to-day, and it is reported that he forgot the names of nearly all who prevented him from moving the coal train at Shelburn. He is a candidate for re-election. The grand jury adjourned without making indictments, but will meet again

> Two of the colored soldiers were made sick by eating ples bought of town people, and this led to a silly rumor circulated by several papers that the pies had been dosed with poison. The doctors found it to be merely a case of rhubart.

> Judge Briggs notified General McKee this afternoon that he had advised Governor Matthews that the force of militia here might be reduced to 150 or 200 without endangering the peace conditions that prevail. Judge Briggs also recommended that whatever troops remained come to Sullivan and go into camp there. Later General McKee was informed, through another source, that Judge Briggs had withdrawn his recommendation for a reduction of the forces, which is taken as indicating that the Judge has received later information convincing him that the trouble is not over. General McKee states that it is for Judge Briggs to say whether or not troops are needed and for the Governor to say how many. Governor Matthews is, therefore, more likely to be governed by General McKen's views of the requirements of the situation rather than by those of Judge Briggs. Central to look over mines in which he is Company A, of Indianapolis, under Lieutenant Prince, returned to-night from a fifteen-mile march, the farthest point of which was Sullivan. The members fired at three suspicious parties who refused to halt. Farmers along the route reported that miners are gathering in the west near the river. A survey of the country was made by the company, which was
